

“Profiles of Courage – Stand Up”

Start with a few questions to get everyone talking. Choose questions that will work well with your group or family.

1. Often times when we confront someone it is more about us being right than helping them be right. How can we confront someone well so it leads them to be right with God?
2. What obstacles might be standing in your way of taking a more prayerful approach when confronting others?
3. Read Daniel 4:22-27, how did Daniel confront Nebuchadnezzar and in what ways was he successful in his confrontation.
4. Read Galatians 6:1, how does this verse compare to Daniel chapter 4?

To introduce some different perspectives into the conversation, consider reading one of these verses together.

Philippians 2:1-4; Matthew 18:15-20; Jeremiah 27:7;
Proverbs 28:13

End each week with a challenge to take action. Lead your group to help each person identify their next steps.

Think of one person that you need to confront to help them get right with God. What will you pray about before you confront them? What do you hope the end result to be? What will it take to trust God for the results?
